

PROFILE OF THE REGISTRAR

Dr. Chukwuemeka Azuoma Ejikonye, is currently the Registrar, Imo State University Owerri; he is also an expert and consultant in Public Budgeting.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Jos, Plateau State (1988), a Masters in Public Administration (MPA) from the University of Calabar (1995) and a Ph.D in Public Budgeting from Imo state University, Owerri.

Mr. Ejikonye has held important positions as a deputy Registrar at the Federal University, Wukari Taraba State; Special Assistant to the Honorable Minister of Interior.

He has also served in various capacities as a consultant to the National Bureau of Statistics and NEPAD Nigeria. He was a consulting member with CompuData International Ltd on “Development of Strategic plan” for Imo State Government “Internally Generated Revenue Project”; Consultant to the National Bureau of Statistics (Nigeria) and, Consultant to the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) National Working Group (Nigeria) for professional counsel and development of its working proposals on the country.

He was given an award of excellence for his outstanding performance in the preparation and presentation of the Federal University Wukari Performance Evaluation Report (2012) by the Honorable Minister of Education (February 7th, 2013).